various forms such as terrestrial, cable and Direct to Home (DTH) broadcast.

(b) No such assessment is available in the Ministry. However, DTH service is expected to provide to the viewer a third alternative to cable and terrestrial networks for receiving TV signals.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) The Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 does not prohibit the operation of more than one Cable Operator in a given area.

Co-production Treaty by film industries

2739. SHRI RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD:
SHRI B.J. PANDA:

Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Italy and Indian film industries have signed a co-production treaty;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether this treaty would also cover television content generation; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) and (b) Government of India and the Government of the Italian Republic have entered into an Audiovisual Co-production Agreement on 13.5.2005.

The Agreement has been entered into to provide a framework for the development of the audiovisual relations of both countries, particularly for film, television and video co-productions. The Agreement would also contribute to the further expansion of the film, television and video production and distribution industries of both countries.

(c) and (d) Under the Agreement a "Co-production" is a film including feature films, documentaries, science films, animation films and commercials, irrespective of length, either on film, videotape or videodisc, which can be shown in cinemas, on television or on video recorders jointly invested in and produced by producers from the two countries and made in accordance with the terms of recognition given by the competent authorities of India and Italy under this Agreement. New forms of audio-visual production and distribution may also be included in the Agreement by mutual consent of both countries.

Telecast by private TV channels through DTH

2740. SHRI S. ANBALAGAN: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is fact that Doordarshan has allowed private TV channels to telecast through its DTH basket free of cost;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the rationale therefor;

(c) whether such practice would augur well for the public broadcasters particularly when it is already incurring losses; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and the steps proposed to be taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Currently, 14 free-to-air private TV channels in addition to 19 Doordarshan channels are available on DD Direct+, Doordarshan's DTH platform. The private channels are presently being carried without any carriage fee. The private channels were included in the bouquet in order to reach out to wider audience and make the service popular.

(c) and (d) Prasar Bharati, as a Public Service Broadcaster, is not driven by commercial considerations alone. Prasar Bharati is hosting private TV channels free of charge for a period of two years as an exploratory measure.
